Presentations by Julia Ann Oglesby, Special Populations Coordinator, Wilco Area Career Center
Workshop AM Session: "Inclusion: Teaching to Embrace Every Student"
Description: Teaching students to have a greater awareness of others around them is important. Recognizing individual differences is the first step to the acceptance of all students in the classroom. This presentation will focus on inclusion strategies that point on racial, cultural, social, physical, and intellectual differences and bring an increased appreciation for all students.
PM Session: "Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder: Understanding and Working with Those with ADHD in the Classroom"
Description This presentation identifies and discusses what is ADHD and how does it impact students physically, academically, and socially. Included are many tips and techniques for working with students with ADHD in the classroom.
Workshop date & time: March 26, 2010 9:30 am – 2:30 pm	Location: Illinois Central College, East Peoria One College Drive Founder's Room-211A Campus Map-Click here
